

Prof. Keisuke Hatada (Doctor of Science)

Associate Profess
Toyama University, Japan
hatada@sci.u-toyama.ac.jp

Academic background

1996/03 Graduated with a degree in Applied Chemistry, Faculty of Science, Tokyo University of Science

1998/03 Master Degree in Science and Chemistry, Graduate School of Natural Science and Technology, Chiba University

2001/03 PhD in Materials Science, Graduate School of Natural Science and Technology, Chiba University (Supervisor: Prof. Takashi Fujikawa)

Work Experiences

2001/07-2006/03 Postdoctoral researcher at the Italian National Institute for Nuclear Physics (INFN), working with Prof. Natoli and Prof. Benfatto.

(developing computational programs such as CONTINUUM, MXAN and FPMS)

2006/04-2006/12 Postdoctoral researcher at the Spanish Institute of Advanced Sciences (ICMA-CSIC)

2007/01-2007/11 Postdoctoral researcher, University of Rome III-INFN, Italy

2007/12-2008/01 Postdoctoral researcher, University of Trento, Italy

2008/02-2008/08 Postdoctoral researcher, National Institute for Nuclear Physics (INFN), Italy

2008/09-2009/09 Postdoctoral researcher, CNRS-Université de Rennes 1, France

2009/10-2011/07 Postdoctoral researcher at the Spanish Institute of Advanced Sciences (ICMA-CSIC)

2011/08-2014/05 Postdoctoral researcher, University of Camerino, Italy (working with Prof. Di Cicco to develop GNXAS and started further research on XFEL)

2014/05-2016/10 Marie-Curie fellow, CNRS-Université de Rennes 1, France (working with Prof. Sébilleau on photoelectron angular spectroscopy program)

2016/11-2017/07 Postdoctoral fellow at LMU-Münching, Germany (working with Prof. Ebert to develop the band calculation program SPRKKR)

2017/08-Present Associate Professor, Department of Physics, Faculty of Science, University of Toyama

Awards

2009/07 Dale Sayer Award (IXAS, @XAFS14)
